

Ahmed Haji Said, MBBS

612.295.2574 · Decatur, GA · ahajisa@emory.edu

EDUCATION

Rollins School of Public Health, Emory University, Atlanta, GA

May 2022

Master of Public Health, Global Health

Honors: Ansley-Miller Merit Scholar

Elrazi University, Khartoum, Sudan

Oct 2017

Bachelor of Medicine & Surgery - MBBS

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The Task Force for Global Health, Health Campaign Effectiveness Program

Oct 2020-Present

Community Manager

Atlanta, GA

- Manage a database of national health policies, strategies and plans for health campaign planners, managers, and evaluators
- Co-manage the Coalition workspace, case study awardees, and other operational research agenda
- Oversee quantitative and qualitative data collection and analysis on the progress of activities conducted by the Health Campaign Effectiveness Coalition; to monitor and evaluate data in terms of quality, timeliness, and accuracy
- Create reports as necessary, summarizing operational data across the HCE Coalition

Maji Safi Group, Menstrual Hygiene Management Program

Jan 2021-May 2021

Technical Advisor, Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning

Atlanta, GA

- Devise program theory, including logic model, situation assessment, and intervention strategies
- Advise on program implementation and process evaluation in assessing context, program fidelity, and compliance

ScribeAmerica

July 2019-Mar 2020

Medical Scribe

Minneapolis, MN

- Operated within various computerized electronic health records (EHR) and systems in order to enter, modify and retrieve sensitive patient information for physicians across multiple disciplines

Federal Ministry of Health Sudan

Mar 2018-May 2019

House Officer

Khartoum, Sudan

- Engaged in a series of 3-month clinical rotations in various departments around Khartoum hospitals, ranging from Internal Medicine, Pediatrics & Child Health, Obstetrics & Gynecology and General Surgery
- Completed a full history, performed a complete physical examination, formulated provisional and differential diagnoses; informed senior clinicians on the management plan, and documented the same in the patient's charts
- Advised and educated patients on matters of hygiene, diet and effective disease prevention methods
- Presented patients cases concisely and coherently during grand rounds, ward rounds, weekly meetings, and any other appropriate forums

Adam Smith International

June 2014, 2015, 2016-Sept 2017

International Development Intern

Mogadishu, Somalia

- Aided in developing a web-based health management information system (HMIS) that analyzes, manages data processes, and provides information regarding family planning, vaccinations, maternal and child health and other primary care services
- Directed alongside donors and project stakeholders in order to facilitate strategic and operational activities, thus generating an evidence-based information system that improves the effectiveness and efficiency of decision-making processes
- Conducted post-distribution monitoring evaluations in order to determine the effectiveness of, and gather data on, the quality and sufficiency of services provided by ASI
- Collaborated in inter-organization team building, coordination, and training of field data collection

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Scholars in Action, Rollins School of Public Health

Apr 2020-Present

Scholar

Atlanta, GA

- Develop mutual, sustainable relationships with the local and global community in order to enrich students experiences while at RSPH
- Partner with various departments across the university and its stakeholders in order to implement professional development sessions for all merit scholars and RSPH students

Rollins Consulting Group

Aug 2020-Present

Member

Atlanta, GA

- Platform for members and collaborators to build professional relationships, develop and grow consulting knowledge and skills

Khartoum Sit-In Clinic

Apr 2019-May 2019

Volunteer

Khartoum, Sudan

- Aided sick or injured protestors with the help of senior physicians at the Khartoum sit-in clinic during the Sudanese uprising in various emergency cases, including asthma attacks, dehydration, gunshot wounds, etc
- Assessed patients for vital signs and initial symptoms of critical injury or illness
- Monitored patient's condition and progress; reevaluated treatment plans as needed

Elrazi University's Medical Student Association (EMSA)

Sept 2014-Oct 2018

Positions Held: Treasurer, Officer & Vice President

Khartoum, Sudan

- Coordinated large scale events that created medical awareness such as "Breast Cancer Awareness Month," "Mobile Clinic Screenings," "Open House" and "Experience Elrazi University" days
- Cooperated with students in order to enrich their medical school experience through representation, advocacy, and funding of student-based resources
- Acted as liaison to faculty, administration, and community with any questions, concerns, or suggestions from students
- Coordinated and assisted in organizing student activities; facilitated communication between various student groups while encouraging cooperation with faculty and administrators

Elrazi University

Feb 2015-June 2015

Student Researcher

Khartoum, Sudan

- Executed a study that identifies, recognizes, and discovers the factors affecting future specialization choices amongst medical students

Elrazi University's Rural Residency Program

January 2014

Volunteer

El Obeid, Sudan

- Evaluated and observed the health system which included curative, protective and diagnostic activities and procedures

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

- Proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint & Access, EHR: EPIC & Cerner
- Excellent leadership, decision making, teamwork, communication, time management & note-taking skills, exceptional multitasking, and problem-solving abilities

LANGUAGE COMPETENCIES

- English: fluent (speaking, reading, writing), Arabic: intermediate (speaking, reading, writing) & Somali: native language